

A Question of Ethics

1. Am I acting out of anger, lust, greed or peer pressure?
2. Is my decision legal?
3. Would I do it if my family were standing beside me?
4. How will it make me feel in 20 years?
5. Is it worth my job and career?
6. What would I do if I were being video taped?
7. Would my loved ones be proud or ashamed?
8. Am I doing unto others as I would like done unto me?
9. Am I doing what I know is right?
10. Is it the Truth?

As a law enforcement officer, if you keep these ten questions in mind, you will always do well and never need to fear the public.

Dawes County Sheriff's Office
February 2003